

FELLOWSHIP OF EVANGELISTS AND MINISTERS

May 2015

News from Leeds

Ian Rowley is writing gospel tracts for giving out in the Hunslet community and elsewhere. May the Lord bless the seed that is been sowed in the district. A harvest of souls in Hunslet would be great, prayer is much appreciated. Ian continues to work and study for the Fellowship of Evangelists and Ministers Bible Studies on the Intermediate Bible Course.

News from Albania

I Travelled to Albania via Turkey on 28th April. This was about my eighteenth trip to Albania (my first was in 1993). My week's stay in Durrës offered me the opportunity to meet up with Albanian friends that I have been acquainted with over the last two decades.

On Sunday I had the privilege of speaking on the subject of the Cross in one of the many churches in the town. This was done through a translator as my Albanian is still work in progress.

My trip on this occasion was not for preaching purposes, but opportunities to share the Gospel always present themselves. I even took the time to talk to Mormons about their religion while they gave out literature on the streets of Durrës!

I was accompanied back to the UK by the parents of an Albanian member of my church. So all in all this short trip was eventful and a blessing.

News and enquiries from Greece

A friend from Greece was asking about the Fellowship of Evangelists and Ministers. He was referred to our website for full details at www.femonline.co.uk hopefully this will help him. Good to have members joining up with us from Bridlington in Yorkshire.

News from Wales

Visiting Caernarfon Castle whilst on holiday I was able to witness to a delightful Jewish man. He was interested in my iPad. Ralph was 87 years of age with full intentions of reaching 100 and visiting more countries around the world - Russia in September. I told him my greatest experience in life was trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour and that our days are in the Hand of the Lord. Thoughtful pause at that completely unexpected witness.

News from Somerset

Been a busy few days. We had a good service on Sunday afternoon. Again the Lord blessed us with a good number, 16 altogether. The preacher was good, he is due in hospital for a heart op and this seemed to add impulse to what he had to say. Although it was a bank holiday we did have a Chapel leaders meeting on Monday afternoon. Only one of the officers was missing. The meeting went quite well and we are moving forward as the Lord leads. We are having to find new preachers to take some of our services. Three of the regular preachers are having to give up through bad health that restricts their getting about. Sadly one of them has only been given a few months to live and is in hospital.

I saw the surgeon this morning and all seems ok and I will have an operation in about two weeks time. We will be at a house meeting in Bath on Friday evening. Sadly at least three of those who normally come are ill or in hospital. We again leave things in the Lord's hands.
